Vendor Agreement for Farmers Market EBT Token Program

Please contact us at 218-726-1665 ext: 224 or farmersmarket@communityactionduluth.org for more information of if you do not understand any part of this agreement.

As a vendor at the market participating in the EBT Token Program, I/we agree:

- to accept the market EBT tokens only for SNAP eligible food items (see list below)
- to charge the same price for goods whether a customer tenders EBT tokens, cash, or check
- that I/we will not give cash change in any amount for goods paid for with EBT tokens even if change would ordinarily be due
- that I/we will not exchange EBT tokens for any reason or with any person for cash
- to display the signs provided on our market stall to indicate that I/we accept EBT tokens

In addition, we understand that:

- the market will not reimburse us for tokens using cash at the market but will reimburse us with a mailed check
- I/we should notify the market beforehand if I/we choose to end participation in the program
- it is our responsibility to ensure that anyone who sells at the the market for our business understands and agrees to the terms of the EBT Token Program
- it is our responsibility to direct questions or concerns about the EBT Token Program to the market manager should they arise

SNAP eligible food items include:

- preserved and fresh fruits, vegetables, and herbs
- meat, dairy, and eggs
- baked and canned goods
- seeds and plants that bear fruits, vegetables, or herbs

Items that CANNOT be purchased using SNAP include:

- food items intended for immediate consumption at the market (such as coffee, or prepared hot foods)
- non-food items (such as crafts, clothes, and flowers)
- produce that is intended for ornamental purposes only (such as gourds and carving pumpkins)

Ask market management if you have additional questions. More information may be found online at: SNAP eligible items

Agreement:

I understand and agree to adhere to the EBT Token Program's requirements as outlined above.

I understand that if market staff observes or receives evidence of my failure to abide by this agreement, I may not be eligible for full reimbursement, my ability to participate in the market may be suspended or revoked, and I may be reported to the federal law enforcement officials.
